

Jane, Foster Parent

On-the-Go

Safety-First

Caring

"I want to provide the best care I can to my children"

BIO:

Jane and her husband, Mike, have always been active in the Oakland area fostering community. Currently with two children in their care, Jane is rather busy, but loves the challenge and fulfillment in making an impact on her children's lives. Between her teaching job at a local community college and the busy schedule of her children, Jane spends a large portion of her day on the go.

NEEDS:

- Communication with her Case Worker.
- Effective care for her children.
- Ability to keep her information up to date.

FRUSTRATIONS:

- Uncertainty on how to best handle challenging care situations.
- Slow processes and communications with Agencies and Case Workers.
